ABOUT

ABOUT JEW DO THE BLUES

Jews Do The Blues features one of Coachella Valley's most talented performers, Deanna Bogart, backed by a wonderful team of musicians from near and far. She joins Rabbi David Lazar in presenting you with a spiritual experience of music and banter benefiting Or Hamidbar.

ABOUT OR HAMIDBAR

We are a new kind of group – creating progressive Jewish spirituality in the desert. Our Rabbi, David Lazar, meets all seekers — Jewish or not, believer or skeptic, student or scholar, just trying it out or tried and true — wherever we are in our spiritual journey. His deep grounding in Jewish scholarship and learning, practice, and social engagement foster the open exploration we need for authentic spiritual growth.

Congratulations

DEANNA, RABBI DAVID, AND
LAZAR FAMILY ON YOUR MARVELOUS MUSIC

THE PERFORMERS

DEANNA BOGART
(keyboard, vocals and tenor sax)

A four-time International Blues Music Award winner, Deanna is a multi-instrumentalist who plays a dazzling piano and a soulful saxophone. She is also a singer, a songwriter, and a band leader. Her eclectic streak and style of adven- turous “blusion” has garnered her numerous awards and accolades while touring throughout the US and abroad.

RABBI DAVID LAZAR
(clarinet and alto sax)

Since his ordination by the Schechter Institute in 1993, Rabbi Lazar has led congregations in Jerusalem, Tel Aviv, Stockholm, and Palm Springs. As a Jewish educator in a variety of frameworks, he continues to promote inclusive Jewish practice and interfaith dialogue. Rabbi David now lives in Palm Springs, California, where he serves as spiritual leader of Or Hamidbar.

Thank you

WHAT SETS US APART?

Or Hamidbar is not one-size-fits-all Judaism. We are a new kind of group – creating progressive Jewish spirituality in the desert. Our Rabbi, David Lazar, meets all seekers wherever we are in our spiritual journey. His deep grounding in Jewish scholarship and learning, practice, and social engagement foster the open exploration we need for authentic spiritual growth.
